

For men who are seeking to shift or enhance their life, this is a first step towards that change...

The Grail

A Hero's Quest to the Self

Join us for this three-day experience that men worldwide have been attending for over 18 years. A place for you to be real and to be your authentic self – without judgement, criticism or advice giving. At The Grail you are simply accepted for who you are.

Paradoxically, this powerful journey is facilitated by three courageous women from Shematrix, who guide us through various inner processes, meditations and powerful speaking in circle to prepare each man for his individual rite of passage. Exploring the unknown of the self requires courage, and a calling. Those who are called know it somewhere deep within ... You are invited to answer that call.

Men who have attended this event describe their experience:

"When I came across the quote, 'Would the boy you once were be inspired by the man you've become' I wanted to say, 'Yes' because I didn't want anyone to know how dead I was inside. Well now, I can tell you that I have never felt more alive, more whole, more balanced in my entire life."

"I was scared of being seen. Of having anyone know how scared I was. Now I laugh at the thought. I can't believe it took me this long to get out of my own way."

"It was very intense for me. The men completely had my back though and I decided for myself that I was going for it. The funny thing is I went into it wanting to be a better husband and father, but came out of it with so much more than that."
